The Rev. Dr. Ray Aldred is a husband, father, and grandfather. He was ordained with the Christian and the Missionary Alliance in Canada. He is status Cree from Swan River Band, Treaty 8. Born in Northern Alberta, he now resides with his wife Elaine in Richmond, B.C. Ray is the director of the Indigenous Studies Program at the Vancouver School of Theology whose mission is to partner with Indigenous Church around theological education. Ray has spoken often at RPC and he and Elaine worship with us when they are able.

Today, we say farewell and thank you to Pearl Overhill as our Administrative Assistant. Pearl has been the Admin Assistant at RPC for the past 5 years, but has been active with our congregation for over 27 years. She has been instrumental in the ministry with our children, youth and families for many years and has been a driving force behind our Family Camps and Vacation Bible Schools. Along with her husband David and their children, Jeffrey, Taryn and Melanie, the Overhills have been faithful contributors to the life and witness of the congregation and disciples of Jesus Christ. As Pearl and David move to Mission, B.C. to begin the next chapter of their lives, we give thanks to God for them and pray for God's continued blessing on them and their family that they may continue to serve our Lord and his people wherever they are.

A time of celebration for Pearl's ministry with us will take place once the congregation is able to gather together in person again. We look forward to the opportunity.

We welcome to our staff, Maureen Natusch, our new Administrative Assistant. Maureen grew up in Malaysia and immigrated to Canada over ten years ago. Since she and her husband have called Richmond home. During this time, the Lord has led her to serve in various capacities at Willingdon

Church, First Baptist Church Vancouver and The Canadian Bible Society/Café Logos. Now, she looks forward to serving Him and the community at RPC. When not working, you will find her enjoying the outdoors, eating sushi, ramen and learning new dance moves. She loves trying new recipes and being a barista; making new drink for family and friends to sample. She is happy to report that no humans were harmed in the making of her concoctions.

We are proud to announce that The Board of St. Andrew's Hall has appointed the Rev. Dr. Ross A. Lockhart who will be the next Dean, as of July 1st, 2020. Join us in congratulating him.
