Deep with God, Wide with the World

June 21, 2020

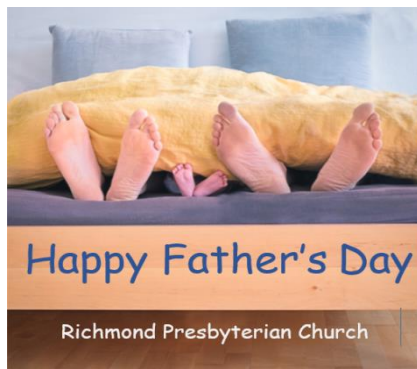

Be sure to check out our webpage at www.richpres.com for more information about worship services or online programs and how we can share in your faith journey.

June 21st is National Indigenous Peoples Day. This is a day we recognize and celebrate the unique heritage, diverse cultures and outstanding contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Metis peoples. Although these groups share many similarities, they each have their own distinct heritage, language, cultural practices and spiritual beliefs.

Summer will be here and along with it, a pretty important date for all the dads out there. You guessed it: June 21st is Father's Day. It's a celebration honoring fathers, paternal bonds, and the influence of fathers in society. How can we celebrate this special day during Covid-19? Here are some ideas:

- ~ serve a hearty brunch
- ~ play family board games
- ~ have a family movie night
(don't forget the popcorn)
- ~ learn something new together (biking, sports, musical instruments, cooking, gardening, photography and more)

Let us know how you celebrated Father's Day. We'd love to hear from you.

Every Tuesday starting June 23 – Sept 8 from 5.30pm – 6.30pm, RPC will be offering free take-out hot meals to our most vulnerable neighbours. For more information about this outreach program, please contact Vic Beltran vbeltran@gmail.com

We congratulate The Rev. Dr. Ray Aldred on his appointment as Interim Dean at the Vancouver School of Theology for the 2020-21 academic year.

The flowers in the sanctuary are placed by Jane & Alex in loving memory of Alex's Dad JP Mwangovya.

Copies of "These Days" are available for pickup outside the main doors of the church for those with subscriptions.
