While it seems like the pandemic has cancelled a lot of things this year, Thanksgiving isn't one of them. It will look different and it may not feature all the same traditions you're used to, but preventing COVID-19 is certainly something to be thankful about.

Here are some things to do this thanksgiving that's not eating turkey:

See Colourful Leaves...

You can stroll through the autumn wonderland and see all the colourful foliage.
Where: VanDusen Botanical Garden,
5251 Oak St., Vancouver.
