Richmond Presbyterian Church

Deep with God, Wide with the World

February 14, 2021

Be sure to check out our webpage at www.richpres.com for more information about worship services or online programs and how we can share in your faith journey.

The congregation of Richmond Presbyterian Church will hold its Annual Congregational Meeting on Sunday, February 21, 2021 at 11:00 A.M., immediately following the morning worship service via zoom. A link will be sent to the congregation for the meeting. The Annual Report will be emailed the week prior to the meeting and those without email will receive the report by regular mail. All members and adherents of RPC are strongly encouraged to attend the meeting as we will be adopting a budget for 2021 as part of the annual meeting. If you are unsure of your ability to use zoom, please let your elder know so that we can help with your set up. Thank you.

Join Rev. Kim during Lent as we explore the Passion of Jesus together. The Lent Bible studies are offered on:

- Tuesdays, 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm, from February 23 to March 30, and
- Wednesdays, 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm, from February 24 to March 31

The studies are the same on both days, you can join either one as your time allows. All are welcome! More details to follow.

We congratulate Andrea Perrett and her husband Jordan on the birth of their first child, Caelan Wilson Perrett. Caelan was born on Feb 5 and mother and son are both doing well.

We extend our deepest condolences to Dr. Anne-Marie Ellithorpe, our Director of Children and Youth Ministries on the death of her father

David Maindonald in Auckland, New Zealand on Tuesday, February 9. We place Anne-Marie and her family in the care of our healing, loving God and in the hope of resurrection found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We received word this week of the death of Len Chow, a former elder of this congregation. Our condolences go out to Len's family and friends in their time of loss.

The flowers in the Sanctuary are arranged and put there by Rosa.
