

We are honoured to be worshipping on the traditional ancestral unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples and do not take this privilege and responsibility lightly. We acknowledge the importance of connection to land, culture, spirituality, family, and community for the well-being of all Indigenous and non-Indigenous people who lived and continue to live here and we at Richmond Presbyterian Church seek to learn from Indigenous wisdom as to how we can live in right-relatedness with Creator, creation and all peoples.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. AMEN.
