Be sure to check out our webpage at www.richpres.com for more information about worship services or online programs and how we can share in your faith journey.

This morning we warmly welcome Samuel Andri to Richmond Presbyterian Church. Sam will be leading worship and the theme of his sermon is "Never Enough".

Children will stay in the Sanctuary for the service today. Children may sit with parents, on the floor mats at the front, or with leaders/helpers in the front row. A children's bulletin will be provided, with activities based on the Lectionary readings for this weekend. Blank paper is also available. Children may use this to depict a response to the scripture readings or the message.

Intergenerational Ultimate Frisbee, Sunday July 31, 3-4 pm, at Maple Grove Park, close to Balsam St, between baseball diamonds. Feel free to come and play or come and watch.

If you are open to helping in a volunteer capacity with preparing morning or afternoon snacks, please let Anne-Marie or Heather know, or email the office (richpres@telus.net).

Food Donations Requested! We would appreciate food donations for the Summer Day Camp. We would particularly appreciate vegetables and fruit including cucumbers, carrots, watermelon, mandarin oranges, and berries. There is a sign-up sheet on the noticeboard.

Sharing the link to the online recording of RPC's Sunday morning service is a great way to generate interest in the church, especially by potential candidates for the position of Minister. Why not share the link on your Facebook page or send others the link to the recording. Thanks for your help in making our services widely known.

Camp Douglas -Donations for air conditioners

Because this summer's extreme heat has led to issues for campers and staff and that summers will only continue to get hotter, Camp Douglas is looking for donations for air conditioning units for their cabins as a longer-term solution. They have units that cost $150 and are looking to raise enough money for eight units. Donations can be made via cheque to CAMP DOUGLAS with specification that the money is for air conditioners.

The latest issue of the Presbyterian Connection is available for pick up. They are on the rack next to the Bulletin Board. As always, this issue is filled with amazing articles and photos from Presbyterian congregations and groups across the country. Get your copy today!

REMINDER: Deadline for notices is 12 pm on Thursdays.
