and how we can share in your faith journey.*

As we look ahead to the limitless possibilities and joys that await us in the upcoming year, we're delighted to welcome again our Interim Moderator Rev. Dr. Richard Topping to lead us in the New Year's worship service.

Children will stay in the sanctuary today.

"On February 18-19, 2023 Richmond Presbyterian Church will welcome a candidate to preach for the call to be the next Minister at RPC. We are so thankful for this development. Meetings will be scheduled on Saturday February 18 for the candidate to meet with various groups of people from the church. On Sunday February 19, the candidate will preach for the call. Immediately after the service a congregational meeting will be held. We will give you more details about the schedule for the weekend and the candidate as the time draws near. For now please mark these dates in your calendar and plan to participate in these important events. The search committee and Session invite your prayers for this process of discernment." Rev. Dr. Richard Topping

OFFERING ENVELOPES

'Box Set Envelopes' for 2023 are available for pick up and for those wishing to have them, please contact Ms. Heather Campbell.

Sunday Morning Worship Volunteers.

Each week it takes 12 volunteers (not including our music team) to make Sunday Worship happen. This includes greeters, lay readers, audio/video crew, coffee hosts, and a counting team. New rosters have been posted on the bulletin board for 2023, but the rosters have not been started.

The Church office is looking for volunteers for:

- lay readers
- Greeters
- Tech support
- Coffee hosts

If you have previously volunteered we would appreciate if you would volunteer again by writing your name on any open date. If you have not participated before and are interested, please contact the church office.

Church office hours: The church office will be closed on Jan 3. Neena will be back in the office on Jan 4, 2023.
