Richmond Presbyterian Church

Deep with God, Wide with the World

January 26, 2020

We warmly welcome all this morning to worship.

Be sure to check out our bulletin board outside the sanctuary and our webpage at www.richpres.com for more information about worship services or programs and how we can share in your faith journey.

"I thank God that I baptized none of you!"

1 Corinthians 1:10-18

Rev. Amanda Currie

Moderator of the 145th General Assembly

This morning we welcome, the Reverend Amanda Currie to worship.

Amanda Currie grew up in Ottawa and her participation in summer camp, PYPS and congregation life all contributed to her call to ministry. She graduated from Knox College in 2003 and has served as minister in Saskatoon. In 2017 she was called to First Church, Regina. Amanda is committed to both denominational service and ecumenical dialogue and cooperation. She is married to Nicholas Jesson, a Roman Catholic theologian and is currently working on her Doctor of Ministry degree through the Toronto School of Theology on the topic of interchurch families. As Moderator her theme for the year has been on ecumenism/Christian unity.

Reel Theology Sermon Series returns next week

Congratulations to Lorne and Uta on the birth of the first granddaughter, Makena Ann born on January 20th.

Tax receipts were sent by email and post the week of January 5th to 9th. If you have not received a tax receipt, please contact Heather immediately.

CRA requires legal name with middle initial (or name) and current home address on tax receipts. Check your tax receipt carefully and notify Heather of changes needed as soon as possible.

Stamps: Pat McK advises that she is once again collecting used postage stamps (not metered). If you receive a letter be sure to cut ¼ inch around the stamp and place in the box located on the shelf outside the church office. This is a fundraiser for the MS Support Group and the Bible Society. Thank you.

It's not too early to be thinking about summer! Brochures for Camp Douglas are now available from the rack by the bulletin board! If your child has never been to camp be sure to check them out on Facebook or their webpage at www.campdouglas.ca for more information.
